

Scenario 1: Launch Zomato Website

Test Steps:

1. Open Chrome using Selenium.
2. Navigate to <https://www.zomato.com/>.
3. Wait for the website to load.
4. Verify that the homepage is displayed.

SCREENSHOT / OUTPUT

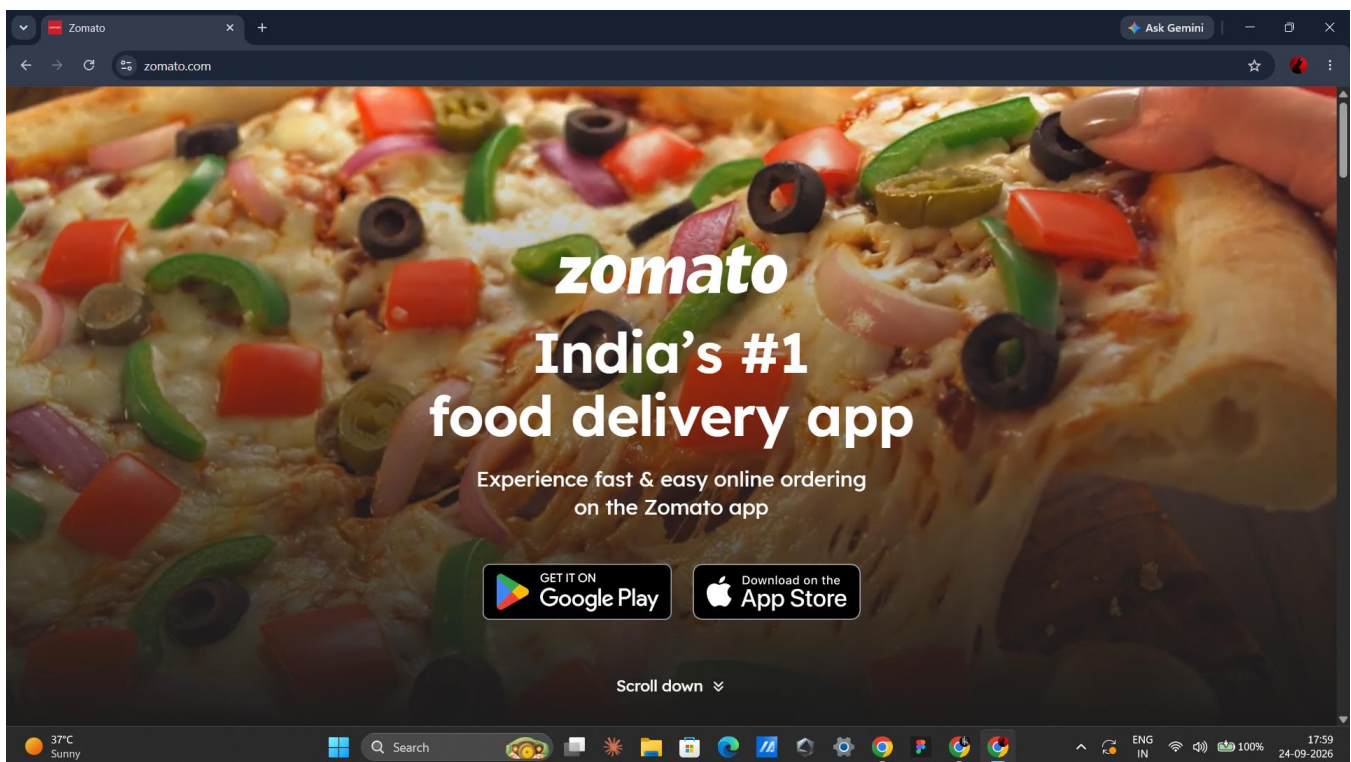

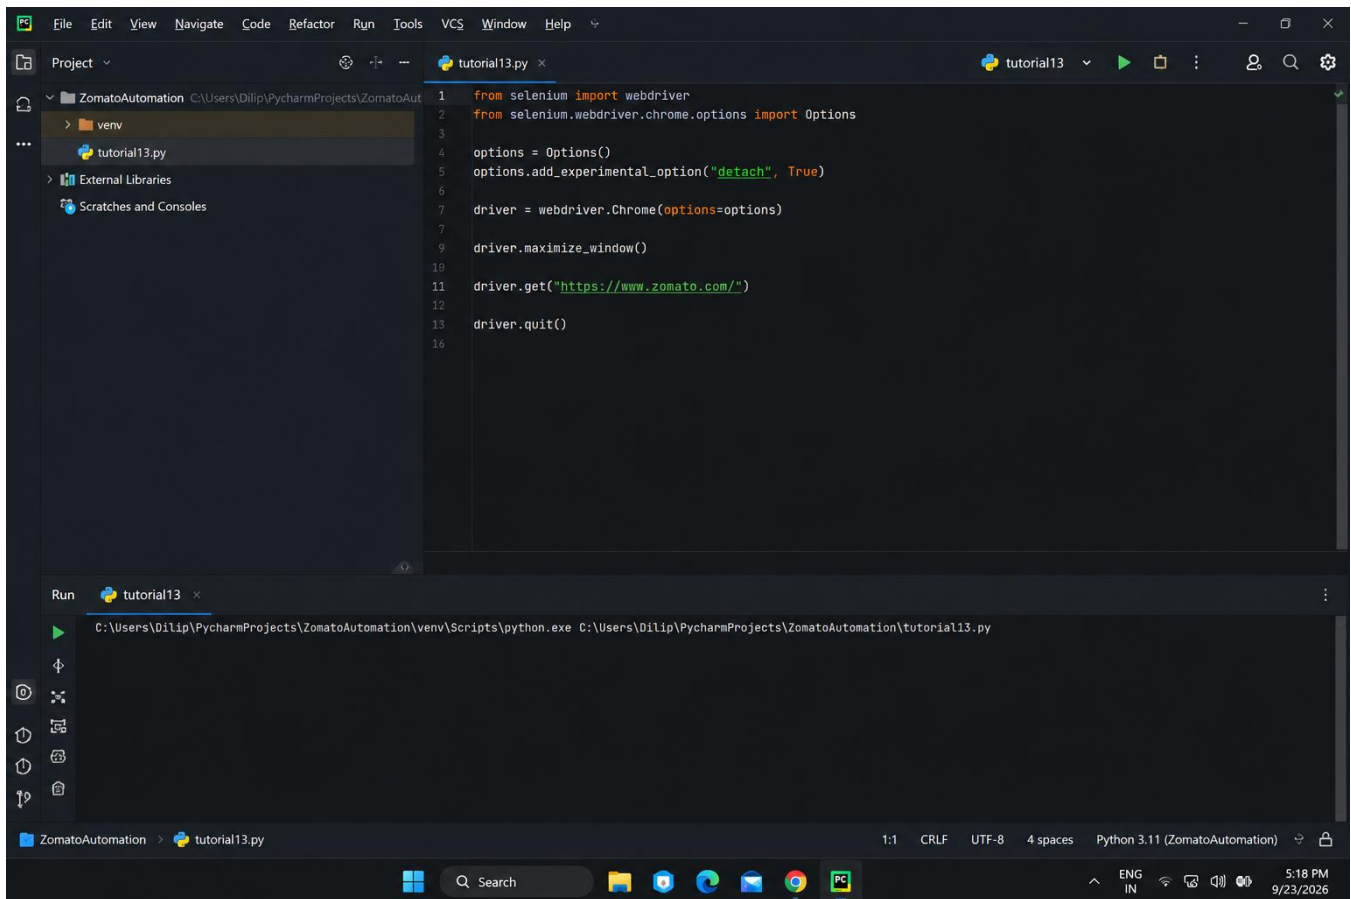

Scenario 2: Maximize Browser Window

Test Steps:

1. Launch the Zomato website.
2. Maximize the Chrome window.
3. Verify that the window is maximized.

SCREENSHOT / OUTPUT

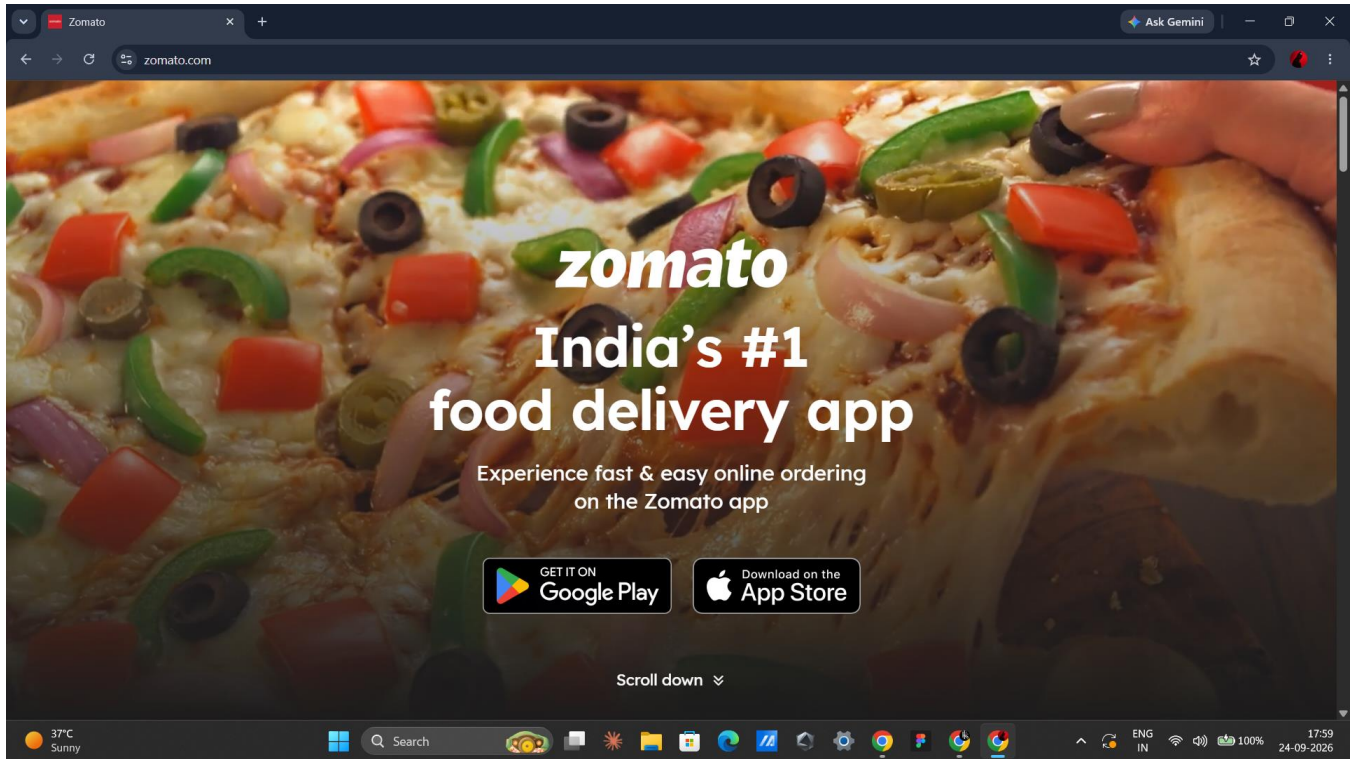

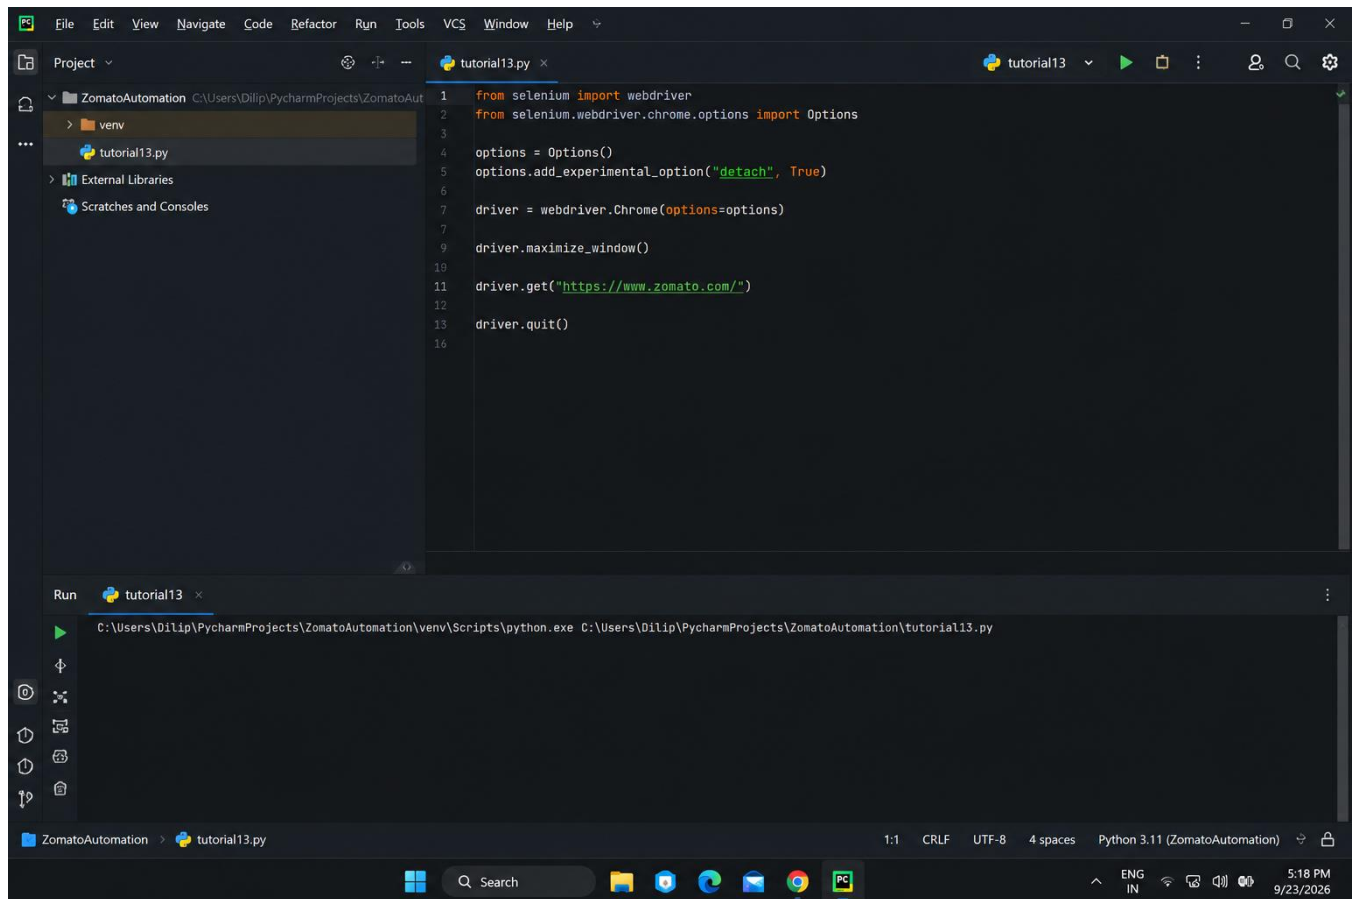

Scenario 3: Verify Website Title

Test Steps:

1. Open Zomato.
2. Retrieve page title using driver.title.
3. Verify the title contains “Zomato”.

SCREENSHOT / OUTPUT

Scenario 4: Verify Website URL

Test Steps:

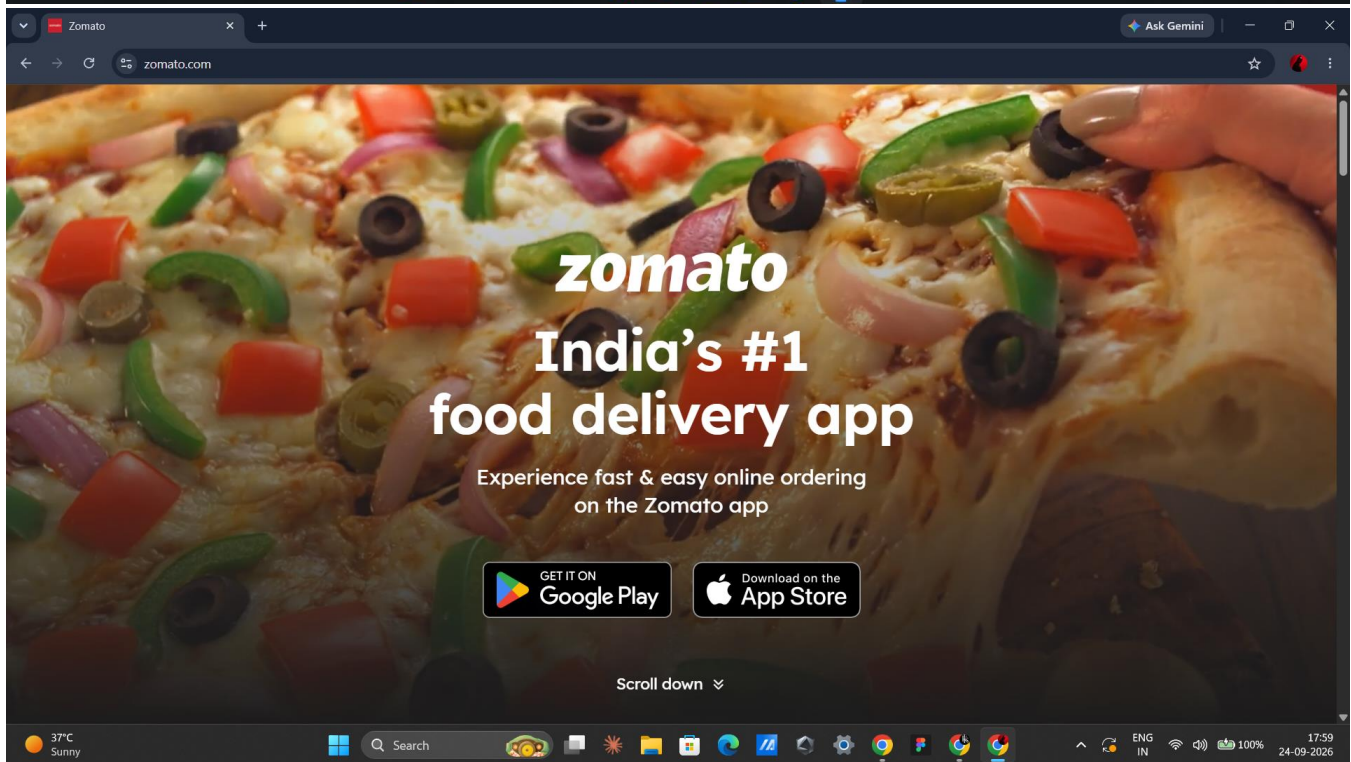

1. Open Zomato.
2. Retrieve URL using driver.current_url.
3. Verify URL contains “zomato.com”.

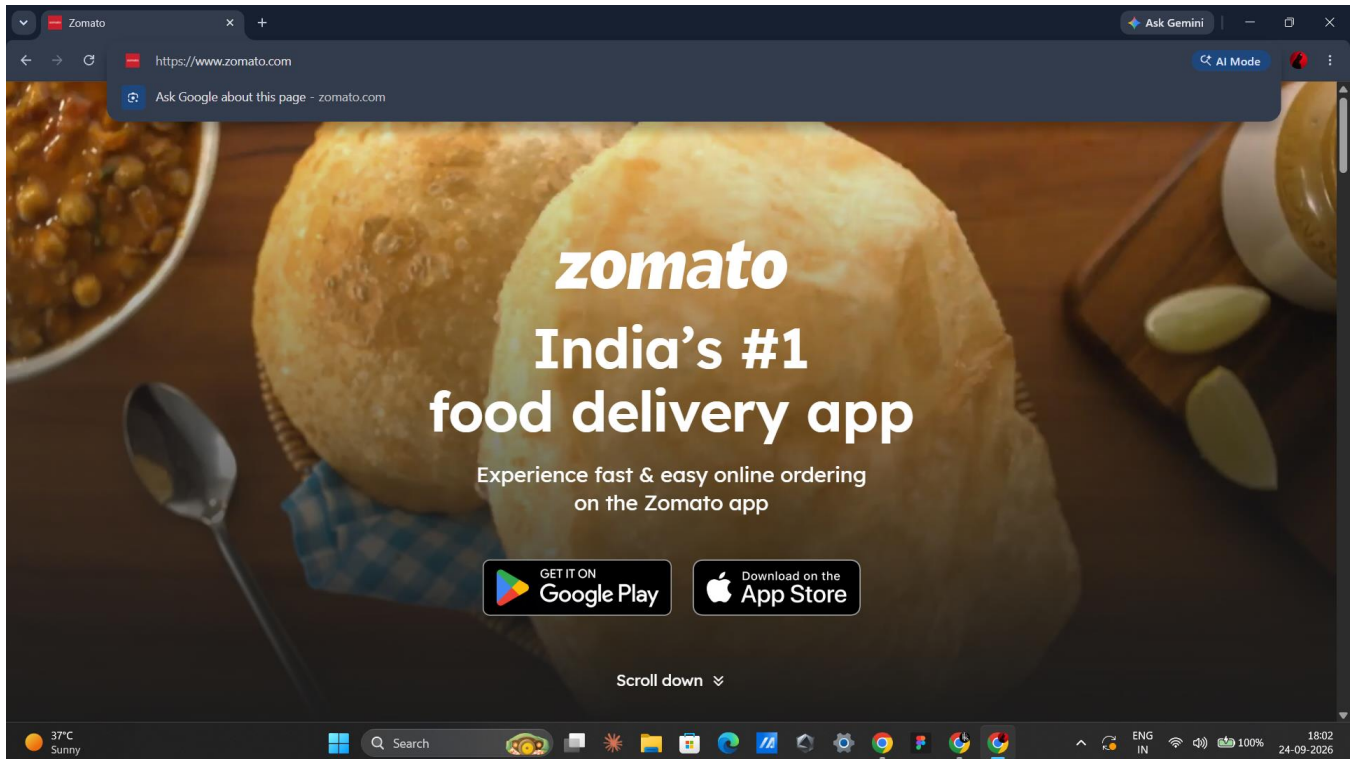

SCREENSHOT / OUTPUT

```
File Edit View Navigate Code Refactor Run Tools VCS Window Help
Project tutorial13.py
ZomatoAutomation C:\Users\Dilip\PycharmProjects\ZomatoAut
  venv
  tutorial13.py
  External Libraries
  Scratches and Consoles
1 from selenium import webdriver
2 from selenium.webdriver.chrome.options import Options
3
4 options = Options()
5 options.add_experimental_option("detach", True)
6
7 driver = webdriver.Chrome(options=options)
8
9 driver.maximize_window()
10
11 driver.get("https://www.zomato.com/")
12
13 driver.quit()
14

Run tutorial13
C:\Users\Dilip\PycharmProjects\ZomatoAutomation\venv\Scripts\python.exe C:\Users\Dilip\PycharmProjects\ZomatoAutomation\tutorial13.py

ZomatoAutomation > tutorial13.py 1:1 CRLF UTF-8 4 spaces Python 3.11 (ZomatoAutomation) 5:18 PM 9/23/2026
```

Conclusion

The Selenium environment was configured using Python, PyCharm, and Google Chrome. Four scenarios were prepared for the Zomato Web Application: website launch, browser maximization, title verification, and URL verification.